Dear Mr. Dulles:

Reference is made to your lecture, "Areas of Vulnerability of the Soviet Bloc," given at The National War College on 4 May 1960.

Enclosed is the stenotypist's transcription of this lecture in duplicate. We would like to make a final copy of this lecture for our library but to be sure we have made no major errors would you please look it over and return the original copy to us? The carbon copy is for your retention.

Please feel free to make such changes as you desire on the transcription. Unless the space is insufficient your notations may be made directly on the copy.

Also enclosed is the manuscript you so kindly furnished.

We anticipate requests from United States Government agencies to loan this lecture. May we have your permission to reply favorably to these requests, at the discretion of the college?

Again, on behalf of the college may I express our appreciation and thanks for this very fine presentation.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

K. L. DAVIS
